Dr. W. B. Fitch's office will be closed from June 24th to July 1st, adv.

Mrs. Harold Bean and sons, Dennison and Frederick, have returned home from a month's visit with Mrs. Bean's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roberts, in Hartford, Conn.

"The West". Magic words are these, for they conjure a picture of wild gorges and sunburnt plains, of strong men, and of courageous women. All the elements that make the great west an everlasting source of inspiration to Americans are present in the riproaring drama, "The Heart of Texas Ryan" starring the popular actor, Tom Mix, the daredevil of the screen, the man who never fakes. Tom Mix is a whirlwind of action, his very name sends a thrill down one's spine. See Mix, hear the orchestra, and chuckle with Chaplin at the Globe tonight.

Remember "Rio Grande," the famous play by Augustus Thomas that shook the nation? "Rio Grande" is a flaming romance of the border. It is a drama that reflects the man moods of the silver stream as it winds its way through rocky canyon and orange-colored deserts. The Rio Grande is a River of Blood; a River of Peace. It divides; it unites. It bridges are of love. Rare and wonderful are the settings. Nature's crowning achievements in rock, a stream make a setting in which a jewel of a love story sparkles as brilliant as the red sun shining on the Rio Grande. And action! It just gallops at a merry pace. So fast and gripping is its story that the seven reels unfold with no knowledge of the passing of time. At the Plains U. today.

The funeral of Dorothy May Rood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Rood, was held at the Rood home Thursday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Dr. E. W. Sharpe. Those called here from out of town were Mr. Arthur Lynaugh and Miss Dana Palmer of South Victory.

One year enlistments are now being made at the local recruiting office in the motorized Field Artillery in each of the 13 regiments. The training is thorough and practical and a year's experience in the motorized Field Artillery will be a good investment for any man.

The many friends of L. W. S. Ford will be glad to learn that he is able to get outdoors at Brighton Hospital Friday and that he is convalescing from his long illness.

John D. Rickaby, of Cambridge, Mass., is here visiting his father, Thomas Rickaby.

Mrs. Katherine Morrison is in Savoyville, P. Q., on a two weeks' visit. Among the automobile accidents reported to the Secretary of State this week was a collision between Frank Wilcox of Cabot and E. W. Moore of St. Johnsbury. The accident was caused by slippery roads and the car of Mr. Wilcox suffered a bent "rib-bone." Thus far 32,236 cars have been licensed in Vermont and license fees received amounting to $478,126.

AMERICAN WOMAN KIDNAPPED BY BRIGANDS

BOSTON, June 26.—Confirmation of the reported kidnapping of Mrs. Paul E. Nilson, by brigands was received by the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions today. Mrs. Nilson is the wife of a Missionary, Rev. Paul E. Nilson and taught a mission in Adana, Turkey, for several years before her marriage. The cablegram said: "Mrs. Paul Nilson taken captive and carried off by brigands." Dr. James L. Barton, secretary of the board, wired the state department that he was confident Mrs. Nilson would be rescued by prompt and vigorous action. Mr. and Mrs. Nilson were the only Americans remaining in Tarsus.

U. V. M. GETS A GIFT OF $100,000 FROM VERMONT

BURLINGTON, June 26.—Announcement of a gift of $100,000, the income of which is to be used for increasing the salaries of the faculty of arts and science at the University was made at the alumni lunch this afternoon by President Bailey. The donor is General Rush C. Hawkins of New York, a native of Pomfret, who served in the Mexican war and later in the Civil war in which he was brevetted a brigadier-general for his courage.

Effect Not Appreciated.

Instead of candles, Lucille's mother placed six large marshmallows on top of her birthday cake. When little Doris returned from the party her mother said: "Well, did you all have a jolly good time?" and she replied: "Yes, all but the cake. Oh, mother, that cake looked so bad, just like a cemetery. It had little tombstones on it."

Added Scott Service

Since the beginning of the war our retail bakery wagon has not been in service. Constant calls for this service and increased capacity in our shop have decided us to start this wagon.

Commencing MONDAY, JUNE 28th, we will make regular canvas of the entire village. The wagon will be in charge of men familiar with our entire line and men who will be keen to maintain the reputation for service and quality which we have established. If by any chance the driver misses you on his first trip, call us up and we will see that your needs are supplied.
